Sharing Responsibility for Teens Form

After filling out this form, keep it in your mailbox folder.

Homeschool Connections requires parents to be on site with their children. If you have only teens on campus, you may partner with one other parent to trade off being responsible for your teens. A teen is any student age 13 or older. You may be responsible for only one family's teens on any one day. If you desire to take advantage of this option, you and your partner should each fill out this form and keep it on file in your mailbox folder. If you do not know your plans for the entire year, continue to update this form as needed. Give a medical release form to any parent assuming responsibility for your teen.

Your name: _____

Name(s) of your teens that will be on site: _____

I will be sharing responsibility for my teens with: _____

Day(s) of the week and time during which we will trade off responsibility: _____

Comments:

I understand that on the days I am the responsible adult for our teens, I will also be responsible for seeing that both my job and my partner's job are done. Also, I am in agreement with this sharing of responsibility, as stated above.
